- 57% are Hispanic.
- 20% are Black.
- 11% are Asian.
- 67% speak English as a second language.
- 58% have been out of high school for more than 10 years.

The average age of our students is 37.

Urban College of Boston (UCB) is a non-profit, two-year college with a 30-year HISTORY of empowering communities through education. UCB originated in 1967 as “The Urban College Program” at Boston’s largest anti-poverty agency, Action for Boston Community Development, Inc. (ABCD). Urban College became an independent, degree-granting institution in 1993, chartered by the Higher Education Coordinating Council of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. In 2000, the College was awarded full accreditation by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges.

UCB seeks to keep the COST of college affordable for every student. Tuition is $296 per credit hour. Over 75% of our students receive financial aid, including Pell Grants, state ECE scholarships, and other voucher assistance.

UCB is conveniently LOCATED near the Green, Red, Orange, and Silver lines on the MBTA.

Everything we do at UCB is specifically crafted to SUPPORT our students as they achieve their goals. Here are some of the things we offer:
